

Exercises for 05-Filetype

Filetypes

1. There are two main categories of file type, text files and binary files.
2. Explain what they are and give examples of each.
3. Together with these exercises you have a source code file (`src/Testing.java`).
Open this file using different programs, e g
 - firefox, chrome or some other browser
 - emacs, notepad, edit or some other text editor
 - vlc or some other media player
4. Together with these exercises you have a presentation in video format.
Open this file using different programs, e g
 - firefox, chrome or some other browser
 - emacs, notepad, edit or some other text editor
 - vlc or some other media player
4. Together with these exercises you have a document stored in various different formats. Open these documents (one by one) in
 - firefox, chrome or some other browser
 - emacs, notepad, edit or some other text editor
 - vlc or some other media player